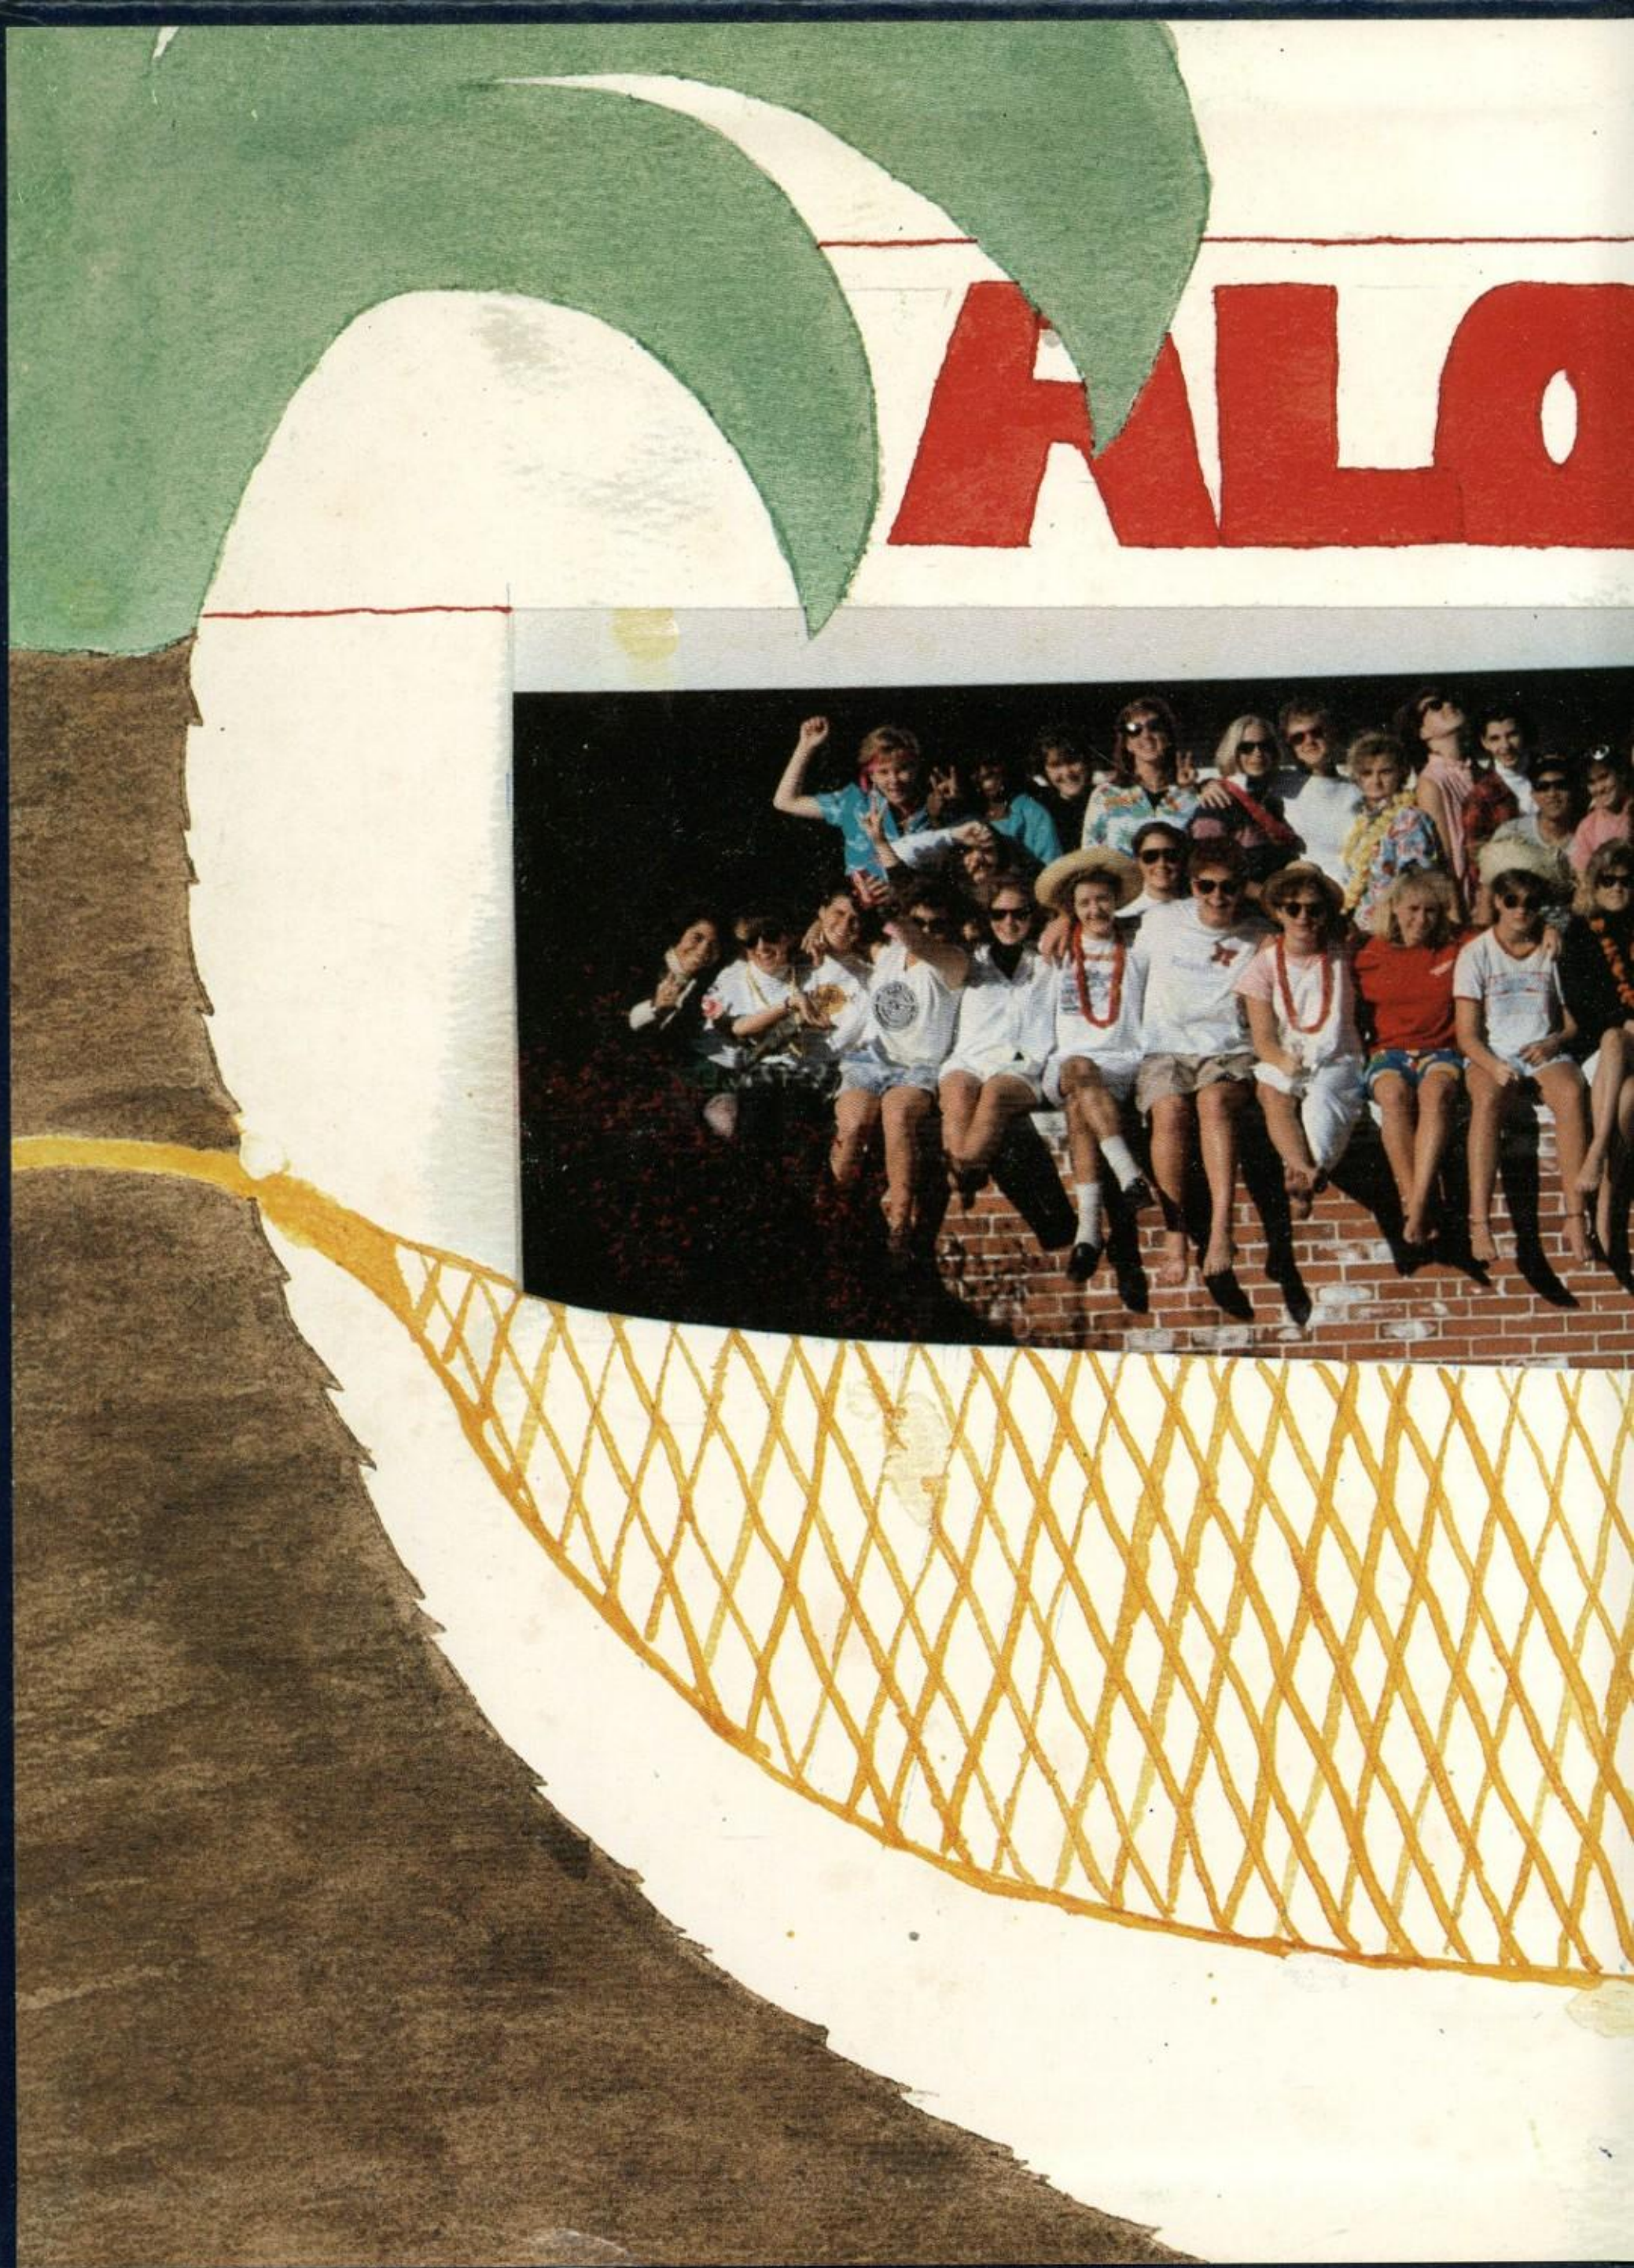
PEPPERPOT
86



ALO

HA!

The class of '86 dedicates this Pepperpot to Mrs. Nelson. Her high standards both in and out of the classroom have challenged us. Our writing will always contain specifics and should any of us befriend a coughing classmate in college we will always have a tin of bonbons on hand. These and other of Mrs. Nelson's thoughtful teachings will serve us as well as she has as our class advisor for the last three years. The hard work and dedication with which Mrs. Nelson has advised us have produced a substantial treasury and trips to New York to see "The Glass Menagerie" and "Cats." We appreciate the undying energy with which she has taught and advised us, and especially worried about us. Mrs. Nelson, we thank you.

The class of '86 would like to acknowlege Miss Paine for her sensitivity and genuine concern for the well-being of the entire student body. She is a highly competent and caring nurse and runs the health center smoothly. No matter how hectic the day Miss Paine is always good humored and affable. Miss Paine is more than a nurse; she is a friend.

Bon Voyage

ALISON KIMBERLY AGEE

Cumberlay — You will always be a very special memory to me. Remember — AA — High Flyer's snow cap!

Debi — Be good Debra! I Love You!

Buffye — yes, I can now spell your name. How much . . . Thanks for making it easier. Look out Colorado!

Mom and Dad, Thanks for just being there and for being my friends. Thanks for all the opportunities that you have given me,
I Love You, Always —

Eudora! Get Off My Face!!

Connecticut — Yeah, I see Avon, but where are the Men!?

Ethel Walker — Thanks for the experience. Bye — Esler, Russell (Bald spot?), O'Connor. See Ya!

Thanks Mom and Dad
Nate, Elisabeth and Matthew
I love you.

CHRISTIAN KENNEDY ANSON

They've been strange years: I can't say I've regretted my stay but then I can't say I'd do it again. I've made many friends but I know I will only stay in touch with a few. I've had many good times yet it's the painful ones I will remember most. Walkers has made a difference in me; I hope I've made a difference in it. After four years I know now what I don't want — hopefully, somewhere I will find what I do want.

"People say I'm crazy, doing what I'm doing Well, they give me all kinds of warnings to save me from ruin
When I tell them that I'm doing fine watching shadows on the wall
Well, they shake their heads and look at me as if I've lost my mind
I tell them there's no hurry
I'm just sitting here doing time."

— John Lennon

Peter and Tracy — You don't know how much you've meant to me this year. I love you both.

There are places I will remember all my life,
though some have change
Some forever
not for better.
Some are gone

All these places
have their moments
With lovers and friends
I still can recall.
Some are dead and
some are living,
In my life I've loved them all.

"Not even when I'm a hundred?" Christopher asked.
"I promise" Pooh said.
Still with his eyes on the world Christopher Robin put a hand out and felt for Pooh's paw.
"Pooh" said Christopher Robin earnestly, "Whatever happens you will understand won't you?"
"Understand what?"
"Oh nothing" he laughed and jumped to his feet.
"Come on."
"Where?" said Pooh.
"Anywhere" said Christopher Robin.

My eyes did Expand
Into regions of air
Away from all Care,
Into regions of Fire
Remote from desire;
The Light of the Morning
Heaven's Mountains adorning:
In particles bright
The jewels of Light
Distinct shone & clear.
Amazed & in fear
I each particle gazed,
Astonished, Amazed;
For each was a Man
Human-Form'd. Swift I ran,
For they beckone'd to me
Remote by the sea,
Saying: "Each grain of Sand,
Every Stone on the Land,
Each rock & each hill,
Each fountain & rill,
Each herb & each tree
Mountain, hill earth & sea,
Cloud, Meteor & Star,
Are Men seen Afar."

Problems will come and they will leave you, the world will try to deceive you, but the truth will always be in your soul.

There's a great deal of difference between living and surviving. You can survive in debauchery, even in sickness and despair. But you live with a spirit of participation, of being wanted, and having something to contribute.

Can it be that it was all so simple then, or has time rewritten every line, if we had the chance to do it all again, tell me would we? Could we?

Fill you heart with love today,
Don't play the game of time.
Things that happen in the past,
Only happen in your mind
Oh, forget your mind
And you'll be free, yeah
The writings on the wall
Free, yeah, you can do it all,
If you choose.
Just remember, lovers never lose,
'cause they are
Free of thoughts unpure
and of thoughts unkind
Gentleness clears the soul
love cleans the mind
and makes it free
Oh, happiness is happening.
Dragons have been bled.
Gentleness is everywhere.
Fear is just in your head,
only in your head.
Fear is in your head
only in your head
So forget your head
And you'll be free.
The writings on the wall
Free, yeah, you can do it all
If you choose.
Just remember lovers never lose
'cause they are
Free of thoughts unpure
and of thoughts unkind.
Gentleness clears the soul
love will clear your mind
And make you free.

The sun was shining on the sea,
  Shining with all his might:
He did his very best to make
  The billows smooth and bright —
And this was odd, because it was
  The middle of the night.

The moon was shining sulkily,
  Because she thought the sun
Had got no business to be there
  After the day was done —
'It's very rude of him,' she said,
  'To come and spoil the fun!'

The sea was wet as wet could be,
  The sands were dry as dry
You could not see a cloud, because
  No cloud was in the sky:
No birds were flying overhead —
  There were no birds to fly.

TWENTY YEARS FROM NOW . . .

. . . 20 years from now, Kim Agee will still be waiting for a phone call from Bill. She will have travelled the world looking for him in one open weekend. She will be a pharmacists specializing in under-the-counter activities

. . . Holly Allen will be found in the midst of fleeing her Nantucket and Greenwich ways in a desperate attempt to once and for all get away from The Beaner. During this frantic escape Holly will have left behind her lacrosse stick and due to this traumatic loss, she will turn to decadent ways to make up for lost time in high school. Once Holly has recobered, one will be able to find her happily settled in a bio. lab with her only true love, shnuck — Chieder.

. . . Chris Anson will be running her restaurant, Chris' Strudel Palace, in the Canadian Rockies. After receiving silicone breast implants, she will be sharing her long cabin and bear skin rug with numerous unshaven and rugged men in flannel shirts.

. . . 20 years from now Pat Barnett (alias Party Pat) will be a graduate of M.I.T. She will be an engineer by day, danger extraordinaire by night. Party Pat, while dancing the tango with Mark, will show Barry some fancy footwork. Who will she choose? Neither, she enjoys living the ''single life.'' After all single girls do have more fun!

. . . Page Bauer will have received her 23rd labotomy, and, uselessly, will be trying to argue for apartheid. Often she can be seen mumbling in her psuedo — french accent about her long lost Nikon. By this time Christopher will have come out of the closet; therefore, Page dedicates her life to her career, being a stand up comedian.

. . . Angi Berry will personally organize and head a committee for writing obscene letters to current E.W.S. faculty. After a reunion in Spain with Hannibal, she will bring him back to Simsbury, CT to open a chain of fashion stores. On Tuesday and Thursdays she has coffee with Mr. Esler and helps him with his Spanish accent and grammar usage. But, of course, she always finds time to go to Venice Beach for those bargain buys.

. . . Justine Blodgett will be licing with a rasta man in Jamaica where they will open a health food stand on the side of the road. She'll have four little brown kids with blonde dreads who lean forward when she talks and say, ''y e e a a h . . .'' When the nature scene begins to make her want to puke, they'll move to NYC and cut and dye their hair. Her legs will grow a lovely six feet long and her chest another twenty inches. She'll spend her mornings writing poems about pollution, and her nights in the clubs, rockin' her little buns away.

. . . Kristi Brown will be engaged to Brad while two other foreign men pursue her. She will still be eating double cheeseburgers in front of the V.C.R. and falling asleep at 8:00 p.m.

. . . Hillary Bush will be know for her riding poems and will open her barn to customers. She will not only teach them to ride but also to ''gooble-gobble.'' Rodney will still tuck her into bed at 10:30 every night. By then, she will still not know how to repond to a compliment with proper etiquette.

. . . Alison Carlin will be sitting on an exotic beach of Club Med listening to U2, remembering her obession which ended one night long before anyone believed her. She will be told to ''phil'' her cup after gulping a superior, waiting for Farmer Brown to make a rule. She will prolong her evenings procrastinating while figuring out whether the song playing is Abracadabra.

. . . Amy Chamberlain will be a Trotter at the University of Hartford. She will, however, go back to see the whale and have an affair with the maitre'd, falling into his arms, claiming to have fainted. She will be wondering how to blow the box into the Horizon, and Keckelly will chase the rats under her pink couch.

. . . Fran Child, having never returned to the U.S., will be a professor of Biology at Oxford. She will always fear that she will see her old American classmates as tourists in her hometown.

. . . D.C. Cohen will be a top fashion model with Ford Agency. However, she will be dropped from the agence after beating up a wise mouth photographer. She will then fall back on her dance abilities, and tour the world with her own Lady D dance company.

. . . Patty Coughlin will be very content. She'll have lost her 8 children in Bloomingdale's Christmas Sale and will eventually be living in a tree house on the West Side. She'll be a very popular lady in her late years, with the pigeons anyway, and will never by known to reality again.

. . . Cristy Coyne will still be a discusting slob. She will no longer be working for the Ricker, instead she will have a rendez-vous in Bermuda, not with Bill but With a real man possibly Tom Burlingson.

. . . Sarah Cummisky will meet a handsome French sailor and he will ask her to be his map queen as they sail around the world together. On this trip Sarah will have many exciting experiences, the highlight being her affair with Harry Belefante. She will then settle down in France after learning the secret of obtaining long nails and will work in a cute little topless bar on Main Street for the remainder of her not so humble existence.

. . . Elise Currie will be heavily involved with the ''aspiring professional'' still trying to make that ultimate decision. Elise will finally have completed her first novel — ''How To Grow Tall: Quickly.''

. . . Having risen through the ranks of the Marine Corps, Justine Davenport, the recipient of several purple hearts, will be the finest woman among the joint Chiefs of Staff. However, she will renounce this position in order to ''find herself'' in California, where she will dye her hair blue, become a cult figure, and be reunited with the man of her dreams. They will be seen heading for the Nicaraguan border in a dark green jeep.

. . . Betty De La Sierra will be vacationing with Tim in Israel, still wondering if ''Victor is riding now.'' Mark Hampton will have appointed her Head Gopher but she'll resign because riding in cabs all day will take away too much time from her 2 marsupial children, Abraham & Rebecca.

. . . Soraya Erami will be happily married to Pete. They will own a nice house with a picket fence, 2 dogs, 3 happy kids, and will be avid members of the PTA.

. . . Suzie Fairchild will be Suzie Wier — living in Houston with their two children Worm and Red. She will be J.R.'s latest chick on the ever-popular ''Dallas''. But secretly she will be having an affair with Bill? Tim? Mike? Mick Jagger? Elvis? . . .

. . . Lara Fichera will be married to Guiod ''The Big Gun'' Giuseppi with her two children, Gino and Angelina, but will have had so many affairs she won't be able to count them on her fingers. Her eyeliner will still run down her face and, burned out at thirty, she will still be trying to find a way into Billy Joel's house.

. . . Hillary Getman will have already been an underarm hair and clean bed sheet specialist. She will be lost in a world of greasy hair. Her favorite pastime will be rear-ending cars that have their blinkers on. Runs in her stockings and the fear of her down comforter deflating will always be the main problems in her life.

. . . Melissa Goodrich will still be figuring the right formula to finish her physics lab with. Her frequent nic fits at four in the morning will end because of her fear of sleep walkers. She will dedicate herself to taking care of Ethel Walker's illegal cats and will still be a two course English scholar. In her free time she will spend all of her money in the sport she considers stupid but loves: riding horses.

. . . Allison Reidy Herr still wearing her army jacket and having graduated Cum Laude from Tunxis Community Day is practicing law illegally in a casino in Nassau. She is still dreaming of having Mikhail Baryshnikov's baby. Neither Matthew, Arthur, nor Pierre can compare. She has seen White Nights for the seven thousandth time and contemplating directing a sequel. She owns a summer house in Nantucket. The bathroom is still in the process of renovation. In the house Matt, Berry and 3 siamese cats have become permanent fixtures.

. . . After marrying one of her infatuations and having her son George, Stephanie Hubbard will become famous for her book on how to fall in love and lose weight. She will meet faithfully each week with Daphne to talk about the latest scam.

. . . Tatia Kneuttel will be living in an Arabian country 15 years from now. She will be married to Prince Michael and expecting her second son. Occasional visits will bring her back to Cranberry Island, Maine and Virginia to visit friends and ride in the family Truxter. Boating experiences will always thrill her and CB calls from Lawrence and Royster will make her blush.

. . . Due to the large number of absences, Tarryn Kone will have to go to summer school to receive her diploma. After graduation, Tarryn will go to University and become the librarian there because the doctor said school is to stressful for her. In order to make ends meet, Tarryn will sell candy on the streets.

. . . Lele Lockhart will still be calling Andy when she's in Georgetown, Matt when she needs a cab ride, Robby when he doesn't call her, Kevin when she wants a bagel. Jon when she wants rade jackets, Marquis when she needs an escort, Brian when she wants football cards, Monty when she wants to laugh, and Howard Green when she still needs help getting into college.

. . . Anna McVay will be found selling her silver jewelry at the FVM antique show. She will still be trying to figure out when she's going to start her one week ''Jane Fonda'' regime, so she can look good when she goes to Washington D.C. to see Andrew. On the side she will be touring with U2 as a groupie.

. . . Cavan Mahony will be living life in the debauched lane. She will often be seen walking around Boston (not Chestnut Hill or Harvard Square, but near her new apartment in the combat zone.) Late at night, wearing her white pumps and looking for someone with whom to have a midnight rondezvous. (Preferably someone with a diploma from Deerfield or Harvard) . . .

. . . Heather Monchik will be the Greenwich representative to Congress and will serve as Honorary Head of the American Cancer Society. In her spare time, she will have had 3 children all of whom she named Michael, Michele, and Mikhail, and a golden retreiver named Hughes. She will own the infamous Mercedes station wagon and happily drive her children to Greenwich Country Day, ballet classes, baseball practice, and Sunday school. Despite her busy schedule, she and her husband Stewart will found the Greenwich chapter of the P.T.A. Every night whe will faithfully do Jane Fonda, if she could find the time between her many secret love affairs . . .

. . . Claudia Mesch will be seen at the Coral Beach Club playing her bongos and singing of her long lost Amstel beer cap. When not in Bermuda, Claudis will spend her time searching for yet another photo album to put her pictures in. She will be renamed for her poetry which are all to A.P. Calculus, and for her book on Self-Improvement Tips for the stomach and the face . . . toothpaste and zits? . . .

. . . Tahra Makinson-Sanders will be stuck in an unknown airport with her ticket purchased in Saudi Arabian Currency which no one will refund. She will be begging for a dime and once she finally manages to steal it from a needy child. She will realize she can't call home since she does not know where her parents have been transfered to today. She will then decide to flip the dime 1000 times to decide if she should finally finish her 3 page term paper . . .

. . . Sara Muirhead will be an Olympic rider. She will still be driving her V.W. Bug and delivering cakes to Avon . . .

. . . After having made a name for herself in the fashion world by developing a line of clothing for math nerds (which will include designer plastic pocket protectors), Kelly will publish her long awaited novel. What It's Like to Dream You're a Number Six. She will run a shelter for homeless math nerds, but will be forced to turn it over to her assistant when she is informed that she will have to undergo surgery to repair the damage her laugh has done.

. . . Karin Raye will be an athletics director at Dartmouth and she will keep in touch will all of her Avon friends.

. . . Miki Porta will be found living in a Subaru decorated by Mark Hampton parked on the corner of 125th street next to her Reuter's buddies with Nicky Gould. She will be shopping around for the cheapest steel cage she can find for her babies, P.J. and Liz. At night she can be found at Tap-O-Keg with Nick trying to decide whether or not they should move to Utah and join their fellow Mormons or finish her Japan paper.

. . . Kathi Olivarius will be a secretary having an affair with her boss, the ex-manager at Bradlees. Her husband Darren, and her nine children will live in the exit state of New Jersey. She will still refues to take off her soccer uniform. She will be hiding her T.V. in her room (as well as her numerous men). Ithica will have long snice rejected ''Kathi'' and have chosen Lara instead. Kathi was last seen trying to use her ''move'' in order to pick up a bus driver.

. . . Heather Richard will be the number one Vogue model of the year. She will be married to John and they will live with her mother in Wallingford, CT. She will frequently be seen driving her red convertable to Marshalls, Bradlees, and T.J. Max to catch the sales. After her career in modeling fails she will pursue a career as a homemaker. Her daily schedule will consist of cooking and cutting out coupons.

. . . Jen Rodts, will end her quest for Mel and will live happily in Nantucket with a yellow Labrador. This Queen of the Amazon's will always be terrdrized by naked Cheetos while dreaming of chocolate pigs.

. . . Amy Rogers will have twelve screaming, snot-nosed little kids enough for her very own lacrosse team. She will be married polygamously to Tim and Alex. Her sweater obsession will have led her to buy two houses in Hanover, N.H. and Rockpot, MA. to accomadate them. Amy still is and will forever remain pouchie.

. . . Cherie Sanborn will have her island design selling worldwide. She will drive the family truchster the V.W. bug until her honda is fixed. Marty will still be writing and Lawrence will have followed her around the world with Roy in the Roysta.

. . . Kelley is going to be a journalist for Interview magazine and given a special assignment to interview Timothy Hutton. He falls madly in love and sends her long stemmed roses. She will marry him and they will have lots of children. Kelley will then buy Interview and become a Hollywood housewife. Eat your heart out M.T.!

. . . Heather Sculthorpe will be Mrs. Kevin Keddy and a member of the Ladies Fire Aux. Her husband, Kevin will still be an active member of the Mon. Bch. Fire Co. even though he will be an ex-Chief. Their son, Kevin Jr. will be going to the fires with him at all times of the night. Heather will be Head trainer at the a,, new and exciting ''Monmouth Country Sea World.'' She will be living happily ever after with her husband, son and dolphins.

. . . Heidi Sculthorpe will be married to Danny Baillie with ten kids sharing her house with her sister, Heather and her husband, Kevin. She will still be trying to analyze her life. She will be coming back to Walker's periodically to sit in Mr. Boynton's religion classes.

. . . Betsy Smith, now Glamor Buchanan, will have opened her own leather shop called ''Spread-eagle leather'' She will become a millionaire moonlighting at the local Mariott hotel and finally will be able to order from the Fredericks catalogue. Betsy will have written a trashy novel sold in all grocery stores. She still claims that we are living in a Synthetic world.

. . . Kris Smith will have her own column in the ''Oregonian'' called Trivia Talk. She will keep in close contact with all her friends from Avon and will be picking up strange men over the phone. She and Mat will have gotten together again, but she will still regret what happened with Chad.

. . . Jessica Steinberg after her Rosedown Plantation Wedding, will settle down in Bayou Country with her nice jewish boy from next door. Preserving her sacred virginity, Jessica, by immaculate conception, will have fourteen children, all uni-brawed and full lipped. Unfortunately, she will have to live the rest of her life bare foot because of her unique long flappy feet,

. . . Eka will be seen dancing in a club spining round and round with a burried brain from studying too hard and wearing her earphones listening to Air Supply. Yet she will have completed her computer major and her third speciality in Calculus. She will have invented her computarized organs and still fly to Walker's from Indonesia just to have her Monday's afternoon lessons with Mr. J. Eka will finally have stopped bitting those boys and she will be married to the guy she met the first time she became intoxicated and be volleyball coach of her son's school.

. . . Elizabeth Sulavik will be a famous rock star known simply as Betsy Jean. On the side Betsy will draw portraits in Canton. When she tries of these careers she will settle down to a real profession. But before she retires she will spend a fortune promoting her farewell album, ''Betsy-Jean is not your lover.'' featuring such hits as Betsy Jean and Spider Legs. She will be extremely sucessful and live happily ever after.

. . . Yoli will be controling a monopoly on world wide polo team from the beaches in Dominican Republic. Her marriage with Pocho will end abruptly when he finds Yoli's secret lover.

. . . Carmencita will be married to Marcos having five kids and living in Nicaragua with the rest of her family. She will up on her excursions on the weekend to play tennis and participate in adult varsity volleyball. She will live a pleasant life, visiting Florida occasionally and always waiting for a little bit.

. . . Kristen Tilton will still ''tear up the dance floor'' if given the chance. Her husband Chris now likes to dance in order to fend other men away. She will have somewhat controlled her easily triggered off laughing fits. She and Chris will drive it home to Boston submerged in snakes.

. . . Amy Turner will be directing, producing, and starring in' her own play, ''Darwin's Revenge.'' All of herincompetent costars will make her mental, so she will become addicted to breakfast cereal because all the cool kids do it, which is a very good reason I must say.

. . . Chrissi Underwood will be a very active Duke album, involved mostly in the parent newspaper. As a career, she will be counseling needy friends and moonlighting at a specific Canadian school where she gives hourly tours. As for the men in her life, she will be happily married and yet have umptine affairs on the side. Above all she will have a shrine dedicated to Dr. L.

. . . Lourdes will be lying on the beach trying to get people to pronounce her name correctly. She will not be taking physic and will have just recently ended an affair with Michael. She will know that to boogie does not necessarily mean to dance and she will have resolved the fact that she is Cuban and not Puerto Rican.

. . . When we next see Buffye, she will be known as Buffye Warthaw Braithwaite Pew. She will be a successful world traveling sex-therapist, better known as ''The Buff'', who can speak eight different languages and wear high-fashioned clothes made by Tony de Laire of France. In 10 years she will only remember Ethel Walker School as a virgin vault and shudder at the memory in comparison to the hallway action. Although she will be married to Pew, her true devation is to Max (in Germany), and her secret — secret lover in Hawaii will be Eddie Walker.

. . . Marie Wolfe will be living in Lake Forest with Hubbie Sydney Fredman, still trying to get into the U.C. college of her choice. Due to her scissor obession, she will have no hair, 3 baby warts and will presented to be a chain smoker. One day she will discover that Marie has evaporated in the shower leaving behind only her fake tan.

. . . After a torid and well published affair with a top KGB operative, Jessica Woodhouse will divorce Mikhail Baryishnikov and defect to Russia. There she will marry the head of the Red Army and together they will stage a complete takeover of the Soviet Union. After finally winning the Afghanistan war and out — Ramboing Sylvester Stallone, the current U.S. President, she will retire to Mexico to write her memories entitled ''Better Red than Dead''

. . . Liz Wright will have been committed to a chocoholic institution with David Bowie's child conceived by immacualte conception. After being released for pure behavior, she will predict the end of the world and build Noah's Ark 11 for the salavation of all animals and men over 30.

. . . Kim Zima will be the wife of the head of American Science Club, Kirk Spocky. They will always be very busy writing computer programs, so they will have no children, just robots, and a dog named Doctor Who. She will also lead a secret life with Peter Davidson in Russia. In her spare time Kim will have invented a Star Trek space ship run by computers and robots, but she will never forget to ride a roller coaster on the weekend, and on halloween night.

PHOTOGRAPHY

The Senior Class has a real fun time.
So we thought we'd sit down and make this all rhyme.
Kim Zima writes good science fiction.
Jessica Woodhouse has excellent diction.
The Top Cats sang to us at the Junior-Senior Dance.
They showed us Hilary G's red, lace underpants.
Eka is the President of Chinese Gourmet.
When Chrissi got into Duke, we all sang Sun-Ray.
D.C. Cohen has some serious beat.
Justine Blodgett never eats meat.
Allison Herr wears a green army coat.
Into Hamilton early was Jennifer Rodts.
"Crazy Legs" is what Sulavik is called.
Sarah Cummiskey is far from bald.
Pat Barnett has a tremendous I.Q.
Amy Chamberlain digs the Who.
Page Bauer laughs at her own jokes.
Heather Monchik has bagged her smokes.
Heather Sculthorpe lives on the Jersey shore.
Heidi lives with her — not next door.
To our disbelief Betsy cut off her tail.
Marie uses Indian Earth so she'll never look pale.
Stephanie Hubbard is known to scam.
David Bowie is Liz's #1 man.
Heather Richards is a smooth operator.
Amy Rogers is a couch-potater.
Alison Carlin was our California gal.
Fran Child is our British pal.
We can tell Lele's from Beverly Hills.
Buffye Warthaw sings like Beverly Sills.
Carmencita is a vollleyball star.
Lourdes Valdes comes from afar.
Elise Currie goes to a Yale a lot.
Kim Agee has a Chinese wok.
Betty de la has some outrageous boots.
Lara Fichera hollers and hoots.
Christy Coyne really knows how to belch.
Anna McVay's laugh is impossible to squelch.
Patty thought "gullible" was not in the dictionary.
Melissa G. is our school missionary.
Sara Muirhead drives a V.W. bug.
Classic Coke is what Kristi Brown chugs.
Karin Raye plays field hockey real well.
Kelley Schuler thinks Tim Hutton is swell.
Horses, Hillary Bush likes to ride.
Miki Porta opens her mouth up real wide.
Tarryn Kone is a student by day.
Tatia Kneuttel lives way far away.
On the phone Kris Smith often talks.
Angi Berry is a caucasian with blond dread locks.
Holly Allen is a pro-star in lacrosse.
Suzie Fairchild really wants the Boss.
Tahra M-S's moods are absurd.
Kelly Pasquan is a nutty math nerd.
Yoli lives in the D.R.
Justine Davenport has trouble with her car.
Soraya sure does love her man.
On stage Chris Anson is really a ham.
Cherie Sanborn knits real neat.
Katie O. has bright, pink sneaks.
Jessica S. traveled to Spain.
Cavan Mahony has study pains.
Taking Physics makes Kristen numb.
Claudia is a Bermuda Beach Bum.
And last but not least,
Amy T. is not from the East.
The Class of '86 is real rad.
And we're also pretty darn bad.
We don't take showers too frequently
And we go to classes with hair that's greasy.

We're all under a great deal of stress.
And we're always suffering from P.,D., and A.M.S.
None of us really wants to leave (Ha!Ha!)
But we feel that we can't impose by taking a P.G.
We'd like to give thanks to our Mr. Coster,
Who is our Head Parent of Foster.
We'd also like to thank dear Mrs. Dee,
To colleges she showed us the key.
So you see what we say when we say that we mean,
The Senior Class is peachy-keen.

Bye Guys!
the Class of '86

The Time of your life (Act one)
W. Saroyan

In the time of your life, live — so that in the good time there shall be no ugliness or death for yourself or for any life your life touches. Seek goodness everywhere, and when it is found, bring it out of it's hiding place and let it be free and unshamed. Place in matter and flesh the least of the values, for those are the things that hold death and must pass away. Discover in all things that which shines and is beyond corruption encourage virtue in whatever heart it may have been driven into secretly and sorrow by the shame and terror of the world. Ignore the obivous for it is unworthy of the clear eye and the kindly heart. Be the inferior of no man, nor of any man be the superior. Remember that every man is a variation of yourself. No man's guilt is not yours, nor is any man's innocence a thing apart. Despise evil and ungodlyness but not men of ungodlyness and evil. These, understand. Have no shame in being kindly and gentle, but if the time comes in the time of your life to kill, kill and have no regret. In the time of your life, live — so that in that wonderous time you shall not add to the misery and sorrow of the world, but shall smile infinite delight and mystery of it.

I meant to do my work today —
But a brown bird sang in the apple tree
And a butterfly flitted across the field,
And all the leaves were calling me.

And the wind went sighing over the land
Tossing the grasses to and fro,
And a rainbow held out its shining hand —
So what could I do but laugh and go?

Promise to look at a leaf on a tree
Promise me, Promise me.
Promise to stand and look out to sea
Promise me, Promise me.
And at noon on the day, look up at the sky
And make it a habit. Try. Try.
But if you haven't a tree, or the sea, or sight,
What will you promise me?
To reach inside and find the spark
That started the tree, gave sight, and the sea,
And so say with me:
Buck up and be a rabbit.

The Coyne Family

All the Olivarius' wish Katie and
All the Seniors

Long lives
Outstanding success
Vigorous health
Everything good life has to offer

Comes the Dawn

After a while you learn the subtle difference
Between holding a hand and chaining
a soul.
And you learn that love doesn't mean leaning.
And company doesn't mean security.
And you begin to understand that kisses aren't contracts
And presents aren't promises.
And you begin to accept your defeats
With your head held high and your eyes open.
With the grace of a woman, not the grief of a child.
You learn to build your roads
On today because tomorrow's ground
Is too uncertain for plans, and futures have
A way of falling down in mid-flight.
After a while you learn that even sunshine
Burns if you get too much.
So you plant your own garden and decorate
Your own soul, instead of waiting
For someone to bring you flowers.
And you learn that you really can endure.
That you really are strong and you really do have worth
And you learn and learn . . . and you learn
With every goodbye you learn.

Congratulations — We did it!! Thanks for for the memories, I'll miss you all! Good luck to you for the future. Love Steph.

Keep your spirit up!
Lots of love!
